DETAILED ITINERARY

DAY 1- Drive from Dehradun to Sankri

Hikers will be picked up at 7:00 AM from Dehradun train station or Petal Nagar for a scenic journey to Sankri. Along the way, you'll pass through Govind National Park, with stunning views making the trip enjoyable. We'll reach Sankri by 5:00 PM, where you'll settle into a homestay and explore the Sankri village before resting for the night.

DAY 2 – From Sankri to Juda ka talab trek

We start our hike from Sankri to Juda-Ka-Talab, a 4-kilometer trek reaching 2,800 meters (9,100 feet). Along the way, you'll walk through dense forests of pine and maple, crossing streams and oak woodlands. Juda-Ka-Talab offers stunning views that will captivate you. Spend the night in tents, feeling close to nature in this beautiful setting.

DAY 3 – From Juda ka talab to Kedarkantha Base Camp Trek

We'll start our trek to the Kedarkantha base, located at 3,500 meters, early in the morning. The trail takes you through dense oak and pine forests before opening up to beautiful meadows. Along the way, you'll enjoy stunning views of famous Himalayan peaks like Kala Nag, Bandarpoonch, and Swargarohini. You'll spend the night in tents, sleeping under a sky full of twinkling stars.

DAY 4 – Trek from Kedarkantha Base Camp to Summit and back to Juda ka talab

On day four, we start at 2 AM to catch the sunrise from Kedarkantha peak. After a quick breakfast, we'll hike to the summit at 12,500 feet, with temperatures dropping and wind chills as low as -15°C . The climb is tough, but the 360° Himalayan views are worth it. After half an hour at the top, we'll descend to Juda Ka Talab via Hargaon, enjoying some snow sliding on the way.

DAY 5 – From Juda ka talab trek to Sankri and return to Dehradun

After breakfast, you'll begin the final hike back to Sankri from Juda-ka-Talab, taking about 2 to 3 hours. As you descend, enjoy the beautiful views of Sankri Valley. The dense forest will gradually open up, revealing the village. This marks the end of your memorable trek. By 9 PM, you'll be dropped off at the Dehradun train station.
